

If the FCC cannot lucidly see that Sinclair Broadcasting preempting their regular programming and forcing their stations to air a "documentary" flies directly in the face of our democratic legacy and the foundation that it was built upon, then I seriously question their ability to regulate anything.

Thank You.

Concerned Citizen,

Justin Taylor